Wise Taxpayers Won't Listen to Advice From the Tax-Free

Hope Star Endorses the Hot Springs Wagering Measure, Amendment No. 55

The political clergy and their prayer-book the Arkansas Gazette are attempting to confuse the voters on Amendment No. 55, the Hot Springs Wagering bill which you will pass on at next Tuesday's general election.

The political clergy say No. 55 is evil. Actually it is a tax measure. And on tax matters a smart people won't listen to advice from representatives of a tax-free institution.

No. 55 is about the only tax measure the Arkansas Gazette is opposed to — and if history is any criterion it should warn you that the Gazette opposes No. 55 because it prefers a different tax — perhaps raising the sales levy from 3 to 4%.

This is a factual discussion by an independent observer. The Arkansas Gazette attacks the so-called "Palmer chain" because it has newspapers in Hot Springs and is endorsing Amendment No. 55. I am 50-50 partner of the Palmers in Hope Star, have sole direction of it, and own no interest whatever in their papers in Hot Springs or elsewhere. Therefore I approach Amendment No. 55 with views that not only are independent but of long standing.

When I came to Arkansas — April 26, 1923, at El Dorado — there was open gambling in Hot Springs. It has never ceased in all the 41 years since, except for occasional election crises like the one today. Carl Bailey, a most able governor, once quarreled with the Garland county powers, but soon turned the issue back to home rule.

It goes without saying that there wouldn't be open gambling in Hot Springs without the consent of Garland county's voters. And the situation is pretty much the same in all the great tourist centers of the world — of which Hot Springs is one of the greatest.

Amendment No. 55 is permissive for Garland county, giving it the right to legalize gambling — but excluding the rest of the state.

Are we a tolerant people, willing to honor Hot Springs in what she calls a fight for her economic life — or do we propose to inflict our prejudices upon a neighbor, damaging her out-of-state trade and, to that extent, depressing the economic picture for all Arkansas?

This is an adult question, to be settled by adults — and taxpayers.

There is going to be gambling in Hot Springs regardless how you vote on Amendment 55 — as you well know from the 41-year record I have cited. Amendment No. 55 is merely a state revenue bill — and if you reject it don't come crying to this editor when a painful new and different tax measure comes over the horizon and grabs your pocketbook. I would expect an attempt to increase the sales tax to 4% — and on sales tax matters I have a public record of being an unhappy but eminently correct prophet.

The betting issue is not new. In 1956 Arkansas was confronted by two proposed constitutional amendments: No. 49, to prohibit pari-mutuel wagering on the horses; and No. 50, to grant the Oaklawn track what amounted to a perpetual franchise. I put this newspaper on the line against No. 49 and for No. 50.

The people of my county of Hempstead voted 2,438 for and 2,518 against No. 49; and 3,084 for and 1,990 against No. 50. They supported Hot Springs on both counts — and so did the state at large by majorities of around 60,000.

I am not a gambling man. But the evil in gambling is relative — relative to knowing what you can afford to lose. If gambling is stupid, at least it is no more stupid than I, a country editor living in a small city, would be in trying to tell a well-heeled vacationer from Chicago how to spend his money in Hot Springs.

Let the other half live their own life, meanwhile picking up the offered tax money.

Vote for Amendment No. 55.

Amendment No. 51, State Officials' Salaries

This would increase the salaries of the state's constitutional officers, but eliminating the office of commissioner of state lands. The proposed increases: Governor, present $10,000 to $18,000; lieutenant governor, $2,500 to $3,600; attorney general, $6,000 to $12,000; and, secretary of state, state treasurer, and state auditor, from $5,000 each to $10,000.

The simple fact is, inflation stalks the land; and if its worth-while to elect a man to live in Little Rock then you should be prepared to pay him the $10,000 a year it costs him to do so. The proposed governor's salary is larger, of course, but is in line with the schedules of other states.

Vote for Amendment No. 51.

Amendment No. 52, Multi-County Industrial & Hospital Districts

This permits the organization of voluntary improvement districts across county lines. It is merely mechanical and permissive.

Vote for Amendment No. 52.

Amendment No. 53, Increasing the Ceiling on City and County Taxes From Present 5 to 10 Mills

This is a permissive measure. You don't pay the extra tax unless your city or county votes for it. In the interest of fair play and good government I would point out that when we abolished the 18-mill ceiling on school taxes we kept the ceiling on city and county taxes at 5 mills. Liberalizing local government's share to a possible 10 mills is reasonable enough. Besides, you don't pay anything extra until you have actually voted to do so, and, to your advantage, the 3-mill road levy is killed.

Vote for Amendment No. 53.

Amendment No. 54, for Voter Registration

This measure is, I believe, endorsed by most factions and candidates, and might be called non-controversial. It sets up a system to replace the poll tax as a voting requirement.

Vote for Amendment No. 54.

Amendment No. 55 — Already discussed

Vote for Amendment No. 55.

Amendment No. 56, County Salaries

I feel that the same argument for higher state salaries (Amendment No. 51) applies here at the local level. There is no questioning the fact that the city-county community generally in Arkansas is over-offered — a declining population but with the number of constitutional officers remaining fixed. But until we decide to do something about this, local government has to be maintained, and officials must be paid in line with this inflationary age.

The schedule for counties like ours, with less than 20,000 population, goes like this: County judge and sheriff, $8,500 a year; the clerk, assessor, and treasurer $7,650.

If you don't like the new schedule you still have the right to petition and set up one that meets majority approval.

It is true overhead costs of officialdom should be reduced to bring the total in line with present population — if not by reducing the number of counties then by the more feasible plan of compelling consolidation of county and city governments, especially in the smaller communities. Why maintain dual sets of officials in a county where the total population, city and county, is only 5,000? The present local governmental structure is obsolete and ridiculous — but until we do something about it men have to live, and if you vote for them you should expect to pay them a reasonable wage.

Vote for Amendment No. 56.

Amendment No. 57, Authorizing Organization of Junior Colleges

Almost every top-water community wants a college, and this is a promoter's dream to help his town get one. It is fraudulent and vicious.

What Arkansas needs is fewer colleges and better ones. Of course Amendment No. 57 is only permissive — but as a citizen, taxpayer, and friend of education, I am opposed to the end result.

Vote against Amendment No. 57.

Gazette's Charge Is Groundless

Editor's Note: Walter E. Hussman, head of the Palmer Newspapers, with which I am 50-50 partner in Hope Star only, read me the following editorial over the telephone from Camden on Thursday — and I endorsed his statement emphatically. Mr. Hussman's editorial was carried by the Palmer wire today. — Alex. H. Washburn

An Editorial —

The Arkansas Gazette in its issue of Oct. 28, castigates the Palmer Newspapers, calling them a horrible example of the liabilities of chain newspaper ownership and charging them with a conflict of interest.

Apparently we are pointed to as a "horrible example" because we take the affirmative on an amendment to which the Arkansas Gazette is opposed. According to the Gazette, we are guilty of a conflict of interest because the Gazette says we are, but no supporting facts given.

Making libelous statements about their temporary newspapers without one scintilla of supporting evidence is a lot of heat to generate over disagreement on one small portion of a ballot.

In making such a vicious strike, could the Arkansas Gazette be actually more concerned with the fact that we publish three of the four morning dailies in Arkansas outside of Little Rock? Doubtless the Arkansas Gazette could have

Says Foreign Policy Has Lost Allies

By WALTER R. MEARS

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, asserting that President Johnson is "trying to reduce American politics to a popularity poll," said today the Democrats are letting the Free World fall apart while U.S. prestige sinks.

The Republican presidential candidate charged that Johnson's foreign policy has lost Turkey as a U.S. ally. He said France is seeking new trade ties with the Soviet Union while Great Britain's new Labor government ponders U.S. nuclear deterrent policies.

And the Communist world, said Goldwater, is "regrouping under tough new leaders."

Turning his campaign westward, Goldwater said Johnson "has proven to be a President isolated from foreign policy behind a wall of political ambition and behind a wall of political henchmen who care for nothing in the world but their own gains and power."

Goldwater made his accusations at a campaign day that takes him to Tucson, Ariz., Las Vegas, Nev., and Los Angeles.

"In just the past few days," he said, "while Lyndon Johnson is trying to reduce Americans to a popularity poll, the Free World has been coming apart at the seams and American prestige has been sinking slowly out of sight."

Goldwater headed west after a final bid for Pennsylvania's 29 electoral votes. With three campaign journeys, he has made that state his one major target in the Northeast.

The GOP contender rolled by train from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh, hammering away at Johnson before crowds that ranged from about 2,000 to 5,000. He capped a day of rain-splattered whistlestop speeches at a roaring rally that packed Pittsburgh's civic arena with more than 13,000 Thursday night.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, introducing the man he had challenged for the presidential nomination, said there were 25,000 people in the hall and standing outside. Police estimated 17,000.

"At the convention I had differences of opinion with the nominee," Scranton said. "In some respects I still have."

That drew a chorus of boos. Scranton, who has campaigned nationally for Goldwater, turned the boos to cheers when he added: "I do not believe in walking out on a party. I do not believe in walking out on our nominee."

POLITICS

President Johnson, making a final campaign tour of the Midwest, says "the vote you cast will be your own and the world you save will be your own." Senator Barry Goldwater says the Democrats are letting the free world fall apart while U.S. prestige sinks.

As many as 1.3 million servicemen may vote by absentee ballot in the election.

Californians vote Tuesday on a proposal to nullify most of the state law banning housing discrimination.

EAST-WEST
A world Communist meeting with Communist China attending is a probability.

The Washington-Moscow "hot line" has stood idle while President Johnson exchanged messages with the new Soviet leaders.

INTERNATIONAL
Tran Van Huong is named premier of South Viet Nam.

NATIONAL
The talk among steel industry leaders about boosting prices has died down.

ARKANSAS
Winthrop Rockefeller says campaigning against Gov. Faubus like fighting a marshmallow; says Faubus ducks issues.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus stages his big show, but the crypt is old and familiar.

Just what does the controversial Lonoke County graveyard look like and what happened to it?

Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs may be asked to resign from a legislative committee for using its letterhead in boosting the bumbling amendment.

Two more suits, and the Republican Party has yet to dent the Van Dalsem Act.

SS Man to Be in Hope Twice Weekly

Beginning with the first week in November, a social security representative will be in Hope twice weekly to serve residents of Hope and the surrounding area.

The representative will be at the courtroom of the City Hall, beginning at 9:00 a.m. on Mondays and Thursdays, to assist in the filing of claims and in answering questions regarding social security matters.

For several days representatives have been in Hope only on Thursdays. The additional day each week is expected to provide quicker and more convenient service.

Methodist Women Join Observance

WCS, First Methodist Church of Hope, joined more than 1,700,000 Methodist Women throughout America in the observance of its annual "Call to Prayer and Self Denial" this week.

Theme of the week was recognition, renewal and response and leaders were Mrs. Bob Turner, Mrs. R. T. White, Mrs. Jim Robertson, Mrs. Harry McLenore and Mrs. Edwin Ward.

Mrs. Earl O'Neal presented a worship center each day. Sacrificial gifts were made and personal prayers offered to aid home and foreign mission projects. Mrs. C. V. Nunn is president of the local group.

The crowd responded with loud laughter and applause. Rockefeller made the "marshmallow" remark with an exasperated look on his face. At the response from the crowd, he broke into laughter himself, then commented: "I'd like to pour it on but with all he's (Faubus) been saying, we could go on all night."

Rockefeller said he had won a mock election at Pine Bluff High School and commented on the fact that he had won nearly all mock elections at state colleges.

He said Faubus had based this on the fact that "all (college) students resented the status quo."

"This state is full of people who must be young-at-heart," Rockefeller said, "from teenagers to 90 years old. We want progress."

Rockefeller ranged almost the entire variety of topics he has discussed in his campaign, criticizing the Faubus administration for what he termed lack of highway development, loss of professionalism in seeking new industry, and poor financing of education.

Verdo Flowers of Hope has signed a contract with the American Rodeo Corp. to be rodeo sportscaster in Cincinnati, O., Gardens November 18-22. The rodeo will feature Kita Bruoff of New York City for the seven performances.

Southern State Chapter of Phi Sigma Chi, education sorority, recently initiated 26 new members including Judy Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Robinson of Hope and Judy Boswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boswell of Russellville, formerly of Hope.

Surplus commodities will be handed out November 3-4, Judge Orie O. Byers announces. The site has been moved to S. Grady at the old Hope Basket Co. office.

Hempstead Audubon Society meets in the Diamond Cafe dining room Thursday Nov. 5 at 7 o'clock. Guest speaker will be Jack Logan, treasurer of the Audubon Society of Arkansas. All birds are invited.

A note from Pinehurst, N. C. Country Club indicates that Mr. and Mrs. James E. Pruden of Hope, Ark., have been enjoying a visit at Pine Crest Inn and playing the five famous Golf Course.

Child Is Killed

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Cheri Elizabeth Allen, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wallace Allen of Bentonville, was struck and killed by a tractor-trailer rig just north of here on U.S. 71. She was crossing the highway with a playmate, officers said.

7 Persons Die in Fire at Old Folks Home

COLUSA, Calif. (AP)—Seven elderly persons, groping blind in thick clouds of smoke, were killed today in a fast-moving fire that burned down the Oak Manor Rest Home for the aged.

"They were dead when the fire reached their bodies," said Colusa County Coroner Howard Moore. He attributed all the deaths to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Cause of the fire was being investigated.

Moore said a caretaker, Ernest Linebaugh, 24, and an inmate, Rosa Rourke, in her 50s, repeatedly ran into the burning one-story wooden building to bring out six other surviving inmates.

Moore gave this account of the tragedy:

Linebaugh was asleep in the one-story building when one of the inmates apparently Mrs. Rourke, saw smoke in a rear wing and made an outcry.

With the smoke thickening, Linebaugh pulled the home's fire alarm. It rang for three or four minutes then stopped, apparently because the power supply failed. The lights went out too, Moore said.

Meantime, Linebaugh called the Colusa fire department. He and Mrs. Rourke rushed back and forth from the home to the lawn to bring out inmates. Flames were shooting through the building.

Moore theorized that the dead inmates had been aroused with the rest, when the inside alarm went off. But by the time they were ready to come out the smoke got so thick they couldn't find their way.

Moore lauded Linebaugh and Mrs. Rourke, whom he credited with saving several lives.

Says Faubus Is Avoiding All Issues

The couple are at home at 915 Pecan St., Texarkana, Ark.

World News

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — An American missionary has been captured by Communist-backed rebels and is awaiting trial by a military tribunal, a rebel broadcast says.

The missionary, Dr. Paul Carlson, 36, of Rolling Hills, Calif., has been in the Congo 14 months. Rebel warriors captured him Sept. 20 at Yakoma on the northern frontier, according to a communique issued by Christophe Gbenye, self-proclaimed president of the Congolese People's Republic in Stanleyville.

The rebels claimed Carlson was a major in the U.S. armed forces, but U.S. Embassy officials say his only military experience was a two-year hitch in the Navy.

Carlson's wife and two children fled to the neighboring Central African Republic with other missionaries during the rebel offensive last month.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Several hundred Turkish Cypriot police and guerrillas and troops of Turkey's army contingent in Cyprus paraded in Nicosia today to mark the 21st anniversary of the Turkish republic.

TOKYO (AP) — About 15,000 leftist students throughout Japan staged meetings and rallies today to protest visits to Japanese ports by U.S. nuclear-powered submarines.

HOBART, Australia (AP) — The Antarctic's potential as a tourist resort has been overlooked, according to Dr. Phillip Law, director of the Foreign Ministry's Antarctic Division.

Law said in a lecture today that establishment of transantarctic air routes, possibly within the next 10 years, could lead to development of tourist activities on the icy continent.

McMurdo Sound, the main American base in the Antarctic, offers many attractions and would be a suitable site for a tourist resort, Law feels. He said it would also be a good stopping point on an air route between Australia and South America.

People in the News

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has been given the annual "Family of Man" award for his "contribution to the principles of freedom and humanity throughout the world."

His son, John, accepted the award from the British Commonwealth.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has named Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, as head of the U.S. delegation for the Nov. 3 inauguration of President Eduardo Frei Montalvo of Chile.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Appropriate replies are being prepared for Cambodia's diplomatic protests over its border incidents with South Viet Nam, according to a State Department spokesman.

Press officer Robert J. McCloskey emphasized Wednesday that the United States is "not contemplating any military responses."

The incidents occurred when Vietnamese forces supported by U.S. aircraft and ground forces aided by U.S. military advisers pursued Communist Viet Cong guerrillas to the Cambodian border.

Today in Washir.gton

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has supported the British government's opposition to a move toward independence by Southern Rhodesia's white government.

A statement issued Wednesday by the State Department warned Rhodesians of "serious consequences which would befall all Rhodesia should their government continue to follow its present course," and expressed the U.S. government's "mounting concern" at the situation.

Earlier this week, British Prime Minister Harold Wilson told Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith that a unilateral declaration of independence would mean Rhodesia's expulsion and Mrs. Marie Hendrix, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Terry Downs and Mrs. R. L. Broach.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Graves, Texarkana, were luncheon guests of Mrs. G. B. Morris on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roe, Los Angeles, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke at DeAnn and other relatives in the area.

Panty Raid on Campus of Ole Miss

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Students fired up by a football pep rally kept the University of Mississippi campus in violent turmoil for hours early today.

The uproar was a sort of combination panty raid, police stoning and "ear rolling."

The car belonged to Burns Tatum, chief of campus police. It was overturned and barrel-rolled down a hill. He wasn't in it at the time.

The raid, good humored at first, turned angry as the night wore on. Bricks and bottles were thrown at police. One officer was gashed on the head by a brick.

When Sheriff Boyce Bratton drove onto the campus his car windows were smashed by flying rocks.

Six campus police, beefed up by five from Oxford and a number of faculty members, joined in controlling the students.

The mile-square campus, adjoining Oxford, was reported quiet by 2:30 a.m.

Pat Smith, an Ole Miss spokesman, said the panty raids and most of the damage was done by about 200 students. Most of the some 2,000 involved in the uproar melted away when it got ugly, he said.

The bonfire rally was staged for the Ole Miss-LSU game, to be played Saturday night in Baton Rouge.

Oil Men Oppose Gas Tax Hike

NOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Oil Marketers Association went on record Thursday as opposed to a gasoline tax increase by the 1965 legislature.

Bobcats Have to Win Tonight to Keep on Top

The Hope Bobcats are pretty much in the same role tonight as the Arkansas Razorbacks will be Saturday night. Nothing much to gain and everything to lose.

A victory will keep the Bobcats right on top of the district although they won't startle anybody with a win. A loss would be a sensational upset with Camden getting the glory and the Bobcats getting the lumps.

So it appears to be another night in which the Bobcats will have to play solid football to beat a team that will be trying mighty hard to pull an upset.

Camden is capable of just that and naturally will pull all stops to win. The Panthers have lost only to Malvern and Warren and scored on both those evenings. Although with two conference losses the Panthers going nowhere, the team could still salvage that glory with a victory.

At 7:15 p.m. in pregame ceremonies, parents of the players will be introduced to fans.

The game starts at 7:30 sharp and one of the largest

Texarkana Rolls Over El Dorado

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — End Jerry Beckham ran 75 yards for a touchdown and caught a pass for a 22-yard gain in the winning drive as Texarkana rolled over El Dorado 12-7 in a Big 12 Conference football game here Thursday night.

El Dorado had a drive die at the Razorback five when the first half ended.

Beckham ran for a touchdown the second time Texarkana had the ball.

In the third quarter, Texarkana went 44 yards for the clinching touchdown in six plays. Beckham's pass reception carried to the El Dorado five and quarterback Fred Green passed to Gene Lott for the touchdown.

El Dorado drove 62 yards in 10 plays for a fourth-quarter score, which halfback Morris Reynolds got on a two-yard run.

Texarkana had no first downs in the first half, only four in the second half.

Likes Arkansas Over A&M by 20 to 0 Score

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer

Arkansas, unbeaten and untied, tries Texas A&M, which hasn't beaten or tied anybody, in College Station, Tex., Saturday night.

Funny thing, though, the routine has been similar in half a dozen seasons past and the Razorbacks have yet to have an easy time of it. They usually win, though, hard time and all.

All things put to another victory for the fourth-ranked Hogs. It should be rung No. 7 on the ladder to success.

Upsets are the favorite topic in the Southwest Conference every season, so naturally the attention is focusing on the Razorbacks a good deal. But we believe they've worked hard to get this far and don't want to waste the possibilities this season holds.

Take Arkansas over A&M, 20-0.

Arkansas State is having its best season in years, so its natural that the Indians want to scalp everybody whose left them bald in seasons past.

Murray State of Kentucky is the next victim: 21-7.

Interest in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference race should peak again this week.

State Teachers tries Arkansas A&M at Monticello, and the Bears should prevail, 14-6.

Henderson goes against Arkansas Tech at Russellville, where no one but the Wonder Boys finds it easy to win. Henderson shouldn't. Take Tech, 14-0, even against that rugged Reddie defense.

Southern State and Ouachita meet at Arkadelphia on about even terms. The Baptists are at home in this game and this situation.

No games scheduled Saturday's Games

Boston at Montreal
Chicago at Toronto

Guernsey Wins 2 From Laneburg

Guernsey played host to Laneburg Thursday night, winning two of three games played. It was no contest when the Guernsey Jr. girls rolled 10 to 52 to 11 victory, but the Laneburg Jr. boys came back to post a 27 to 22 win.

Guernsey Sr. Boys downed Laneburg 59 to 50 with Ronnie Faulkner tossing in 24 points, and Kenneth Coleman, 18, Laneburg's Ronnie Jones made 20 and Lambert 17.

Broyles Pleased With Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles was pleased with the way Arkansas' passing practice went Thursday, but star receiver Jerry Lamb remained a doubtful starter this week.

The fourth-ranked Razorbacks play Texas A&M in College Station, Tex., Saturday night.

Arkansas is unbeaten and untied after six games. The Aggies haven't beaten or tied anyone in six games.

Quarterbacks Fred Marshall, Ronny South and Billy Gray impressed Broyles with their throwing accuracy.

Lamb pulled a leg muscle in the 14-13 upset of Texas, then No. 1.

Marlene Leads Women Golfers

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP) — Marlene Hagge shot a 69 Thursday to lead the women professional golfers in the pro-am section of the Las Cruces Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Kathy Whitworth followed with a 70 and Mickey Wright, the leading money winner on the women's tour, had a 71.

Thirty women professionals tee off today in the 54-hole, $8,500 tournament at the Las Cruces Country Club.

ation, Ouachita, 13-6.

Hrading and Ozarks, the celebrities, play at Clarksville.

We like Harding, 6-0.

Picking the Pro Winners for the Weekend

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland seeks revenge for an earlier loss to Pittsburgh, Baltimore goes after its seventh straight victory and Detroit and Los Angeles battle for the runner-up role in the West in key National Football League games Sunday.

Buffalo, only unbeaten team in the majors, shoots for its eighth straight against Houston and Boston duels New York for runner-up honors in the East in top American Football League games.

A 9-2 record last week gives us courage to go for a few upsets this time. The season score is 47-24-5 — 28-18-3 in the NFL and 19-6-2 in the AFL.

Here goes for the second half: (All games Sunday afternoon unless otherwise indicated):

NFL

Los Angeles 21, Detroit 17 — An upset right off the bat. The Rams and Lions play "get the passer" with their tough defensive lines. They fought to 17-17 tie Sept. 19 but Los Angeles outgained Detroit. Ram rookies pack more scoring punch, with Milt Plum handicapped by injured elbow.

Dallas 17, Chicago 14 — Cowboy defense to handle Bill Wade's passes in another surprise. Dallas coming strong in last two weeks with Don Meredith healthy. Bears battered physically but still playing.

St. Louis 24, New York 17 — Despite loss of Sonny Randle, Cards have mixture of running and passing to top Giants and blitzing defense to harass Y. A. Tittle. Both quarterbacks have interception trouble. Cards will give Giant rookie Ernie Wheelwright prime test. Running of Joe Childress, Willie Crenshaw and John David Crow make Cards tough.

Baltimore 28, San Francisco 10 — One of these days Colts are going to have a letdown. Could be this one but 49ers don't have rush line to hurry Johnny Unitas and John Brodie will get a rough reception. Colts' well-balanced offense too much.

Green Bay 24, Minnesota 21 — Vikings won their first meeting 24-23 on a missed extra point by Paul Hornung. Loss of Paul Flatley hurts Minnesota's air arm. Vikings can be had with pauses. Both clubs can move the ball on the ground. A real tough one.

Cleveland 24, Pittsburgh 21 —

This could be a killer. Steelers made 353 yards on the ground with John Henry Johnson and Clarence Peaks in winning first meeting 23-7. Conservative Brown pass rush gives Ed Brown plenty of time. But Jim Brown is overdue for a big one, especially against a club that stopped him cold earlier. Everybody runs against Steelers — except Browns.

Washington 21, Philadelphia 20 — Another upset. Toughest pick of the week. Redskins won first game 35-20 on five touchdown passes by Sonny Jurgensen who may have key to Eagle defense. Bobby Mitchell caught 12 against Glenn Glass first time so Nate Ramsey gets the job this week. Can Ollie Matson and Earl Gros run on Skins? That will decide it.

AFL

Boston 24, New York 21 (Saturday night) — Patriots beat Jets earlier 28-10. Mike Holovak's crew best in league on defense against rushing and Jets must have big yardage by Matt Snell to win. Gino Cappelletti and Jim Colclough catching Babe Parilli's passes give Boston edge. Jets vulnerable to bomb since loss of Marshall Starks.

Buffalo 28, Houston 17 — The Bills' happy string can't go on forever. But the rookie-loader Oiler line-up doesn't have the stuff to stop the combination of Jack Kemp and Daryle Lamoh ca.

Oakland 24, San Diego 21 — Another upset. Al Davis has been having a tough year (1-5-1) but he has Sid Gillman's number. Clem Daniels and Billy Cannon are rolling. Cotton Davidson is rolling out and hitting Art Powell. Chargers having injury trouble in linebacking and deep defense but Lance Alworth, Keith Lincoln and Paul Lowe are healthy.

Kansas City 21, Denver 7 — Denver broke its long losing streak at Chiefs' expense Oct. 11, 33-27. Doesn't figure to happen again. Broncos having problems in defensive backfield. Len Dawson supposed to be ready to go but Eddie Wilson has been fine back-up man.

Candidate For Tax Assessor

DORA GUNTER KING

Mother of Three Children

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gunter

Wife of Frank King, Well-Known Hope Businessman

My reasons for seeking this office are two-fold. The first is that we would like to see a strong two party system established, which, we believe, would be a healthy factor in politics.

The second reason is that we believe there is NO need for an across the board increase in taxes, but that there IS a great need for more EQUALIZED ASSESSMENTS, which will benefit all taxing units in our county.

Your vote will be considered as a vote of confidence in the future of Hempstead County.

Kelso Can Dethrone Round Table

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Kelso can dethrone Round Table as the world's richest horse Saturday.

The 7-year-old gelding from Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Bohemia Stable needn't even win the two miles of the $100,000-added Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct for the fifth straight year. A second will be sufficient to send Kelly, as the four-time Horse of the Year is popularly known, to the top of the list.

Kelso has earned $1,732,772 and is only $17,097 away from Round Table's $1,749,869. With four starters, including the well-regarded 3-year-olds Quadrangle and Roman Brother, the Gold Cup will gross $106,600 with $69,290 ticketed for the winner and $21,320 for second.

The race, with Milo Valenzuela again handling Kelso's reins, will be the popular champion's final test before he joins Gun Bow as the U.S. representatives in the $150,000 Washington D.C. International at Laurel, Md., Nov. 11. Incidentally, Kelso has finished second in the last three Internationals.

In addition to Quadrangle and Roman Brother, Guadalupe, who never has won a stake, is expected to take on Kelly in the Cup. Under weight-for-age conditions, Kelso and Guadalupe carry 124 pounds. Quadrangle and Roman Brother 119. A 3-year-old hasn't won the endurance test since Kelso started his string in 1960.

Willie Shoemaker replaces Fernando Alvarez on Roman Brother and Manuel Ycaza handles Quadrangle. No jockey has been named for Guadalupe, who has finished second twice in the Gold Cup.

WIN ROCKEFELLER'S PLEDGE...

MAINSTREET MEETINGS ...government with the people

In his vigorous campaign for Governor of Arkansas, Win Rockefeller has revisited most of the counties he has been in many times before.

As he has traveled the "Faubus Freeways" of Arkansas, his campaign bus has sometimes surrendered to the atrocious condition of the roads, so that he has finished some tours by car, pickup truck, and on foot.

The incumbent Governor, who has never visited many of the byways of Arkansas, has ridiculed this method of meeting the people. He has poked fun at this way of learning about the peoples' problems and aspirations. He has said that television and radio are good enough for him. But you can't ask a question of your television set. You can't discuss a problem with your radio set. You're on the wrong end of a one-way street. You can't talk. You can only listen.

Win Rockefeller does not believe that person-to-person contact with the people is a proper subject for ridicule. Win Rockefeller believes that the intelligence, the energy, and the faith of the people in their God and in their government are the real strengths of the State of Arkansas.

Therefore...WIN ROCKEFELLER MAKES THIS PLEDGE TO YOU: If elected Governor, I will continue to stay in touch with you on a person-to-person basis. Regularly throughout my term, I will conduct a series of MAINSTREET MEETINGS.

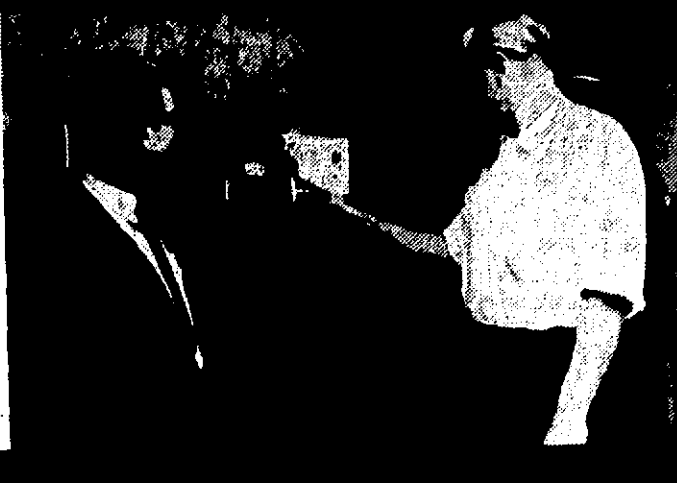

I will come, in turn, to the various sections of Arkansas with department heads of state government and meet with teachers, civic leaders, agricultural leaders, labor groups, city and county governmental leaders, highway employees, businessmen, the general public, and other groups.

In this way I can discover problems, answer questions, solve some problems, plan legislation to solve others. I will remain in intimate touch with the people of Arkansas.

HOW MAINSTREET MEETINGS WORK FOR YOU

Win Rockefeller will talk with the civic, city, and county officials in your area

Win Rockefeller and members of his staff will tell you about his programs that will benefit you

Win Rockefeller will continue his visits with the people to discover—and solve—their problems

'Cemetery' Issue Kept Up by Faubus

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

BENTON, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus staged the big show of his campaign Thursday night, but he read from an old script.

The governor televised and broadcast 30 minutes of a rally at the Saline County Courthouse, but most of the charges he fired at Winthrop Rockefeller have been fired before on the stump circuit.

The only new material concerned the alleged desecration of the Robinson Cemetery near Lonoke by employees of Rockefeller's Southern Rice Division of Winrock Farms.

Faubus said he had a letter from O. S. Bowen, whom he did not identify, who wrote, Faubus said, that he was working at the farm when the cemetery was damaged in 1960.

Bowen wrote, Faubus said, that he went to Petit Jean Mountain and tried to tell Rockefeller, including:

Desecration of the cemetery; that Rockefeller brought a truckload of whisky with him when he moved to Arkansas; that Rockefeller put many persons out of work by liquidating the Plunkett-Jarrell Wholesale Grocery; that Rockefeller has admitted he does not attend church regularly.

While Faubus was shaking hands in the crowd after the speech, a woman either fainted, fell or was pushed to the ground. Faubus went to help her. Then he was verbally assailed by another woman. He said the woman charged that one of his supporters had pushed the other woman down.

The complaining woman, who was not identified, was led away by a man, apparently her husband.

After the rally many from the crowd moved to the Faubus campaign headquarters a block away for free soft drinks.

The crowd—estimated at 2,500—was swelled by a 150-car motorcade from Little Rock. At one time the motorcade was backed up six miles toward Little Rock.

It was an enthusiastic audience, one of the best Faubus has had. But there were dissenters. Two boys with Rockefeller placards perched in a tree in front of the speaking platform. There were several Rockefeller buttons in the crowd.

U. S. Floyd, who said he has handled three Faubus rallies in Benton, said this was the biggest ever. Sheriff Guy Grant said he had never seen a larger crowd for a political rally in Saline County.

Some confusion developed over how Moser was invited to make the introduction. Moser said he didn't remember who invited him. A Faubus aide said the invitation was extended on instructions from the governor.

It was Moser who asked Rockefeller at a minister's meeting in Little Rock Monday about Mrs. Rockefeller's three divorces, a question that brought a murmur of complaint from other ministers and a critical statement from the Rev. Sam Allen, executive secretary of the Arkansas Council of Churches.

effeller what was happening but that Rockefeller refused to see him.

Faubus said Bowen wrote that the cemetery once contained five acres while only one (actually about 1½) was fenced off after the cemetery was damaged. He said Bowen wrote that the cemetery once had 50 grave-stones and 45 markers. (Only about six, some broken, remain.)

The governor held his speech to 25 minutes after an introduction by the Rev. M. L. Moser Jr. of Little Rock.

He skipped the homespun stories he has been telling on the stump and swiftly reviewed the charges he has made against Rockefeller, including:

Desecration of the cemetery; that Rockefeller brought a truckload of whisky with him when he moved to Arkansas; that Rockefeller put many persons out of work by liquidating the Plunkett-Jarrell Wholesale Grocery; that Rockefeller has admitted he does not attend church regularly.

additional thousands of circulation in the southern part of the state were not for these morning papers.

Could it be that the Gazette's main objection to what they call chain newspapers is really the desire to have their opposition voices small and weak, and above all, published in the afternoon?

Arkansas has a serious weakness hindering its development in the fact that only two newspapers have state-wide circulation.

When the largest paper in the state desires to practice irresponsible journalism, having to buck only a "regional chain" or, better still, individual publishers with necessarily more limited circulation, it is extremely difficult for those maligned to reply.

Coming as it did from the largest newspaper in the state, this "conflict of interest" charge probably would be accepted by the average subscriber as being based on factual information rather than being merely a wild accusation completely unsupported by documentation. Such a charge is not only purely hokum but the Gazette knew it was when it was published.

The Gazette to the contrary, and remember there is no proof either way, we are supporting Amendment 55 because (1) We are opposed to illegal gambling, (2) because we believe it might provide the impetus in development of tourist business that can assist Arkansas in getting out of the economic cellar, and (3) for the salvation it might provide to our tax-starved school system. If adoption of the proposal accomplishes any or all of those things, it will doubtless immeasurably help the economy of Hot Springs as well as the rest of Arkansas. We are interested in both.

If the Gazette sees a conflict of interest in our desires to economically develop the part of the state that we serve, we wonder what name it deserves when it does likewise for Pulaski County?

Is it a conflict of interest when the Arkansas Gazette uses its state-wide circulation in marshalling support for a project that benefits only Pulaski County? If the marshalling of such support helps in the realization of some of these projects, and it does, is not the community that has a state-wide newspaper somewhat at an advantage? Can anyone charge the Arkansas Gazette with a conflict of interest for working to develop its home community?

In the same editorial the Gazette refers to the closing of the Hot Springs "gambling hells." If this be its conviction, why did the Gazette use its statewide circulation to help the "hells" draw crowds by soliciting and running their advertising? Was this a conflict of interest, or worse?

Even if there is no conflict of interest on the part of the Gazette, we can see where such an advantage definitely conflicts with the interest of the rest of Arkansas.

A look at the census figures would seem to bear out that Little Rock is prospering at the expense of the balance of the state, rather than with it.

The U. S. Census substantiates that Pulaski County gained 53,705 in 1960 over the 1950 census. The rest of Arkansas lost 176,944 population for the same period.

Again the U. S. Census for 1960 shows that Pulaski County gained 86,827 population over the 1940 census. The rest of Arkansas lost 249,942 population in 1960 as compared with 1940. Apparently our interests conflict since the largest city in the state with nearly $100 per capita for municipal services, siphons off population from the rest of the state where the average is less than $40. We do not envy them their prosperity, but we do resent their interference when we try to join that happy state.

Possibly our interests conflict, when the Gazette runs reams of editorial space on wide-spread gambling in Garland County month in and month out, but brushes under the rug the fact that in 1963, when gambling was wide open in Garland County, Pulaski sold only three less occupational wagering stamps than the 28 sold in Garland County.

Possibly our interests conflict, when the Gazette freely maintains that illegal gambling can be eradicated in Garland County, yet, tucked away in paragraph 15 of a related story it acknowledges that one of the better known wagering establishments in Little Rock operated for 18 years without ever being successfully raided.

From a personal standpoint, finally our interests certainly conflict when the Gazette uses its statewide circulation to indict us for conflict of interest without any supporting facts.

Thanks to the "chain" the refutation has a chance of catching up with the original charge in the southern part of the state. As for the other three sections of the state it can only be hoped that the people of those areas will realize that the Gazette is practicing the type of journalism on which population losses are built.

Halloween Not Always Spooky Fun

By ROBERT P. SALMON

BOSTON (AP) — Be happy that the tykes won't be demanding "trick or treat" in the name of Muck Olla Saturday night, dad.

They might burn down the homestead or beat you if you didn't come across.

Halloween is spooky fun. A few years ago it was pranks some not so childish. A few hundred years ago, particularly in England, Ireland and Scotland, Halloween was dead serious — with emphasis on the dead. People went around with hearts in their mouths, trying to keep spooks and ghosts out of their houses.

Call it what you wish — Halloween, Hallowmas, All Hallowes eve, snapapple night, All Saints eve or even tealay — the holiday is the weirdest we have.

It's a combination of an ancient Roman fruit festival and an old English harvest celebration, with a goodly dash of witchcraft from the Middle Ages.

Romans used to pause each autumn to give thanks to Pomona, goddess of fruits and gardens. That's where we get apples and nuts as part of Halloween.

In Britain, the harvests were over by the end of October and the English, the Celts and the Welsh used to hold festival in honor of the sun god.

The sorcery crept in when the Christian Church in England tried to suppress these pagan rites. Driven underground, the druids added Satan to their list of pagan deities. They held periodic meetings. Mid-night was their favorite time. Black cats were considered delightful.

The Celtic year ended on Oct. 31 and these pastoral people called it the eve of Samhain. Samhain represented both the end of summer and a festival of the dead. The druids said ghosts and goblins went around on that night killing animals and stealing babies.

Muck Olla was a good guy. But the Celtic delinquents who used his name would go from house to house, demanding food and drink in the early druidic diet's name. You came across if you wanted to live to see the next Halloween.

Longest and strongest bone in the human skeleton is the femur or thighbone.

Says Trimble Did Not Keep Promise

OZARK, Ark. (AP) — Republican Jerry Hinchaw told a fund-raising dinner here Thursday night that Rep. James D. Trimble, D-Ark., has backed down on a promise to retire after this term.

Hinchaw, opposing Trimble for 3rd District congressman, said Trimble promised to serve only 20 years "so he could retire on the $11,250 a year due him."

"Why did he go back on his promise?" Hinchaw asked. "Is there something the people don't know about?"

He said a small group has been able to control the district's congressional seat for 34 years, with the incumbent always coming from the same area.

"Isn't it about time all the people had representation?" he said.

Trimble is from Berryville in Carroll County.
